

REGISTRATION FORM

name: _____
affiliation (if any): _____
street address: _____
city, state: _____ zip code: _____
telephone: _____
email address: _____

I would like to make a reservation for:
Please indicate the number of tickets desired.

Southwest DC: Renewal at Risk
$10 members
$20 non-members

Evaluating the Significance of Modern Structures
$10 members
$20 non-members

$_____ TOTAL

I would like to make an additional donation of $_____ to support the DCPL.

I have enclosed a check made out to the DC Preservation League

I wish to charge the above total to:

MasterCard / Visa

card number: _____

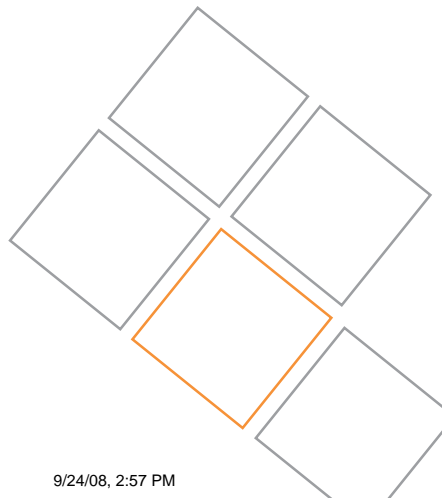

expiration date: _____

signature: _____

Please return this completed form to the address below or fax it to (202) 783-5596. Reservations may also be made by emailing the above information to rsvp@dcpreservation.org or by calling (202) 783-5144.

DC Preservation League
401 F Street, NW, Room 324
Washington, DC 20001

fall programming

:: Southwest DC: Renewal at Risk
October 4, 2008

:: Survey of Mid-Century Modern Washington
October 15, 2008

:: Panel Discussion: Evaluating the Significance of Modern Structures
November 20, 2008

DC Modern fall 2008

planned spring 2009 program

:: modern hotels in Washington

:: mid-century apartment houses and other modern residential buildings

:: federal modernism

:: religious architecture of modernism

J. Edgar Hoover F.B.I. Building, Washington, DC
Photo credit: Dr. Richard W. Longstreth

DC Modern fall 2008 program

Southwest DC: Renewal at Risk

October 4, 2008 | 10 AM to 12 PM (9:30 AM coffee) | AIA CEC Available
Thomas Law House | near 6th and Water Streets, SW, Washington, DC
$10 Members, $20 Non-members | Registration required; please see form on back.

The DC Preservation League and DOCOMOMO will present a walking tour of urban renewal projects in Southwest Washington, the site of one of the nation's largest redevelopment zones. Led by a local historian and architect, the tour will focus on the planning and execution of urban renewal practices in Washington. A reception before the tour will be provided by the Tiber Island Cooperative Homes, one of the developments built as part of the urban renewal.

Survey of Mid-Century Modern Washington

October 15, 2008 | 6 to 8 PM | AIA CEC Available
Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Library | 901 G Street, NW, Washington, DC
free | Registration not required.

Through generous funding from Monument Realty, Robinson & Associates conducted a study of mid-century modernism and has created an inventory of modern buildings. The evening will begin with an overview of the project by David Maloney, DC State Historic Preservation Officer followed by a brief discussion of the importance of modernism to the development of Washington by Joan Brierton, DCPL Past Trustee, General Services Administration. Concluding the presentations will be the introduction of the initial list of buildings by Judy Robinson. Time will be allotted for audience participation. Presented in cooperation with the DC Historic Preservation Office.

Panel Discussion: Evaluating the Significance of Modern Structures

November 20, 2008 | 6:30 to 8 PM | AIA CEC Available
Pan American Health Organization | 525 23rd Street, NW, Washington, DC
$10 Members, $20 Non-members | Registration required; please see form on back.

Join DCPL for a lively panel discussion concentrating on the designation and future preservation of modern buildings and sites within Washington. With generous time for questions from the audience, this active discussion will focus on ways to evaluate the architectural and historic significance of architecture of the 1950s, 60s, and 70s. This evening's distinguished panelists will include: Christine Madrid French, Recent Past Preservation Network; Theodore Prudon, PhD, FAIA, US DOCOMOMO; Beth L. Savage, GSA; Kristi M. Tunstall, IIDA, GSA. This panel discussion has been generously supported by Hines.